

PHILIPS

Dads and Grads

Have a Dad or a Grad to shop for? Both Father's Day and graduation are right around the corner! Don't worry, Philips has something that any Dad or grad can use. With gift ideas ranging from the latest in viewing technology to the ultimate audio experience, Philips' gadgets are designed to make any Dad or grad happy.

For music lovers on the go, the ShoqBox is where it's at. Philips Personal Sound System (PSS110) bundles everything you need into the perfect travel size companion. The ShoqBox includes 256MB of storage for more than eight hours of downloadable WMA music, features an FM radio, and can connect to any portable audio player. The ShoqBox can be used with headphones for personal use, but also boasts XSL speakers with enough sound to fill a room. The ShoqBox has its own alarm clock – perfect for dads on business trips or for grads living in tight quarters.

For a gift that will spoil more than just dads and grads, treat the whole family to a Philips FlatTV™. Philips provides many options for different viewing preferences such as sleek designs that don't take up much space, Ambilight™ that illuminates and expands the picture and the latest in LCD technology.
